I've been o - ver Snow-don, I've slept up on Crow-den, I've camed by the Wain Stones as well, I've sun-bathed on Kin - der, been burned to a cin - der And ma - ny more things I can tell; My ruck-sack has oft been my pil-low, The hea-ther has oft been my bed, And soo-ner than part from the moun-tains, I think I would ra-ther be dead. I'm a ramb-ler, I'm a ramb-ler from Man-ches-ter way, I get all my plea-sure the hard moor-land way, I may be a wage-slave on Mon-day, But I am a free man on Sun-day.
